

Broadband over Power Line (BPL) technology places at extreme risk our Electromagnetic Spectrum resources. It is certain to create intolerable interference to existing services, most of which directly effect both safety and security in the United States. Furthermore, the efforts that will be required to address the inevitable issues will require fiscal resources that don't exist. BPL is a negative value technology to consumers and public safety. We will fight incorporation of this technology in every way available to us.